SATURDAY, 9/10

SUNDAY, 9/11

Making Stuff with Marty

Instructor: Martha von Rosenstiel

Saturday, September 10 • 11 am – Noon

Join Marty and friends as they demonstrate the basic process for making stuff with trash. There will be an exhibition of things made from recycled materials and students will get to try their hand at paper folding to create bowls, picture frames and more. This class promotes a different way of looking at what we throw away. Class size limited to 10 students.

Cost: $5

Ages: All ages (under 6 accompanied by adult only)

Basic Beadweaving: Peyote Squared Bracelet Workshop

Instructor: Christine Ray

Saturday, September 10 • 1 pm – 2:30 pm

Learn the art of beadweaving with this simple peyote stitch bracelet. Square seed beads build up quickly to make a fun fashion accessory. No previous bead weaving experience necessary. Class size limited to 12 students.

Cost: $10

Ages: 10 and up (adults welcome)

Intro to Stained Glass

Instructor: Richard Prigg

Saturday, September 10 • 2:30 pm – 4:00 pm

Students will have the opportunity to create a stained glass piece from pre-cut glass under the direction of Rick Prigg, General Manager of Willet Hauser Architectural Glass, Inc., the oldest and largest stained glass studio in the country. Class size limited to 8 students.

Cost: $15

Ages: 11 and up (adults welcome)

Loop Necklace

Instructor: Liz Steele Coats

Sunday, September 11 • 11 am – Noon

Students will learn basic jewelry-making techniques as they create original glass necklaces involving looping, crimping, and beading.

Cost: $5

Ages: 10 and up (adults welcome)

Hodgepodge Collage

Instructor: Jessica Eldredge

Sunday, September 11 • Noon – 1:00 pm

Come and try out a variety of collage projects from paper dolls to postcards. Have fun with cutting and pasting piles of colorful paper. Class size limited to 10 students.

Cost: $5

Ages: All ages (under 6 accompanied by adult only)

Cluster Earrings

Instructor: Liz Steele Coats

Sunday, September 11 • 1:00 pm – 2:00 pm

Learn to create glamorous sterling silver and gemstone cluster earrings as you bend, twist, and bead jewelry wire onto pierced earring hooks. Class limited to 15 students.
